WE ARE INTRODUCING
A NEW CLAN
CALLED DUGU.

THE STORY
SHOULD GO
LIKE THIS.

The man from the first panel is now in the center, facing forward. He has a serious expression. To his left, a smaller version of himself is visible, also in a black beret and glasses, with his arms crossed. To his right, a group of three people are looking at him with expressions of surprise or shock. The background is a plain white wall with some faint star-like sparkles.
